Policy Statement

Data is a critical asset of the University of Delta, Agbor (UNIDEL), encompassing student records, research outputs, financial information, and staff data. Effective data management is essential not only for administrative efficiency but also for safeguarding institutional integrity, ensuring regulatory compliance, and protecting the rights and privacy of all members of the university community.

In an era driven by digital transformation, UNIDEL recognizes that responsible data governance is fundamental to academic excellence, research advancement, and informed decision-making. Consequently, the University is committed to ensuring that all data is handled securely, ethically, and in accordance with applicable laws, particularly the Nigeria Data Protection Act (NDPA) 2023.

Prof. Stella C. Chiemeke KSM, FNCS

Vice-Chancellor

1. Introduction

In today's information-driven environment, data has become a vital institutional resource. The University collects data for a number of purpose about intending students, current students, staff and other individuals who come into contact with the University of Delta, Agbor (UNIDEL). The proper management and protection of data are essential for operational effectiveness and the preservation of individual privacy rights.

This Policy provides a comprehensive framework for data management and privacy within the University, outlining guiding principles, scope, and procedures to ensure compliance with national and international standards. UNIDEL acts as both a data controller and data processor, and is therefore responsible for ensuring lawful and secure data handling practices.

2. Principles of Data Management and Privacy

UNIDEL adopts the following core principles:

- Legitimacy and Transparency: Data collection at all levels (online or at departmental/ faculty level) shall be for lawful and clearly defined purposes.
- Informed Consent: Individuals must be adequately informed and must consent to the collection and use of their data.
- Accuracy and Relevance: Data must be accurate, complete, and relevant to its intended purpose.
- Data Minimization: Only necessary data shall be collected and processed.

- Accountability: The University shall be accountable for all data under its control and ensure the deployment of necessary technical measures to ensure data security and avoid unlawful or unauthorized access and processing of data.

3. Scope of Data

This policy applies to all categories of data collected, processed and stored by staff of UNIDEL, including:

- Student records
- Research data
- Financial data
- Employee records
- Administrative data such
- Institutional performance data
- Career services and alumni data
- Staff profiles and publication repositories
- Any other institutional data

4. Legal and Regulatory Framework

UNIDEL operates in compliance with the Nigeria Data Protection Act (NDPA) 2023, which provides a legal framework for the protection of personal data in Nigeria. The University also aligns with global best practices, including principles similar to those in international data protection regulations.

5. Definitions (Summary)

- Personal Data: Any information that identifies an individual directly or indirectly.
- Sensitive Personal Data: Includes health, biometric, employment records, contact information, religious, or political information.
- Data Subject: Any individual whose data is processed (students, staff, contractors, etc.)
- Data Controller: UNIDEL, which determines how data is processed.
- Data Processor: Any entity processing data on behalf of UNIDEL.

6. Data Security and Privacy

UNIDEL is committed to ensuring:

- Secure data storage and transmission
- Use of encryption technologies
- Strong authentication and access control mechanisms
- Regular security audits and risk assessments
- Effective incident response and data breach management

7. Data Handling Procedures

7.1 Data Collection

- Must be lawful, transparent, and purpose-driven
- Requires informed consent
- Must adhere to data minimization principles

7.2 Data Dissemination

- Only authorized personnel may access data
- Data sharing must have a legitimate purpose and must be approved by the Head of the Department/Unit/Faculty.
- Secure transfer mechanisms must be used
- Records of data sharing must be maintained

8. Data Privacy Best Practices

- Data minimization and purpose limitation
- Transparency in data usage
- Encryption of sensitive data
- Role-based access control
- Continuous staff training and awareness

9. Data Protection Governance

UNIDEL shall establish a Data Protection Unit (DPU) led by a Data Protection Officer (DPO) responsible for:

- Ensuring compliance with data protection laws at the departmental/units faculty/university levels
- Monitoring data processing activities
- Conducting audits and impact assessments
- Handling data breach incidents

- Promoting data privacy awareness within the University community

10. Monitoring and Enforcement

The University shall implement:

- Continuous monitoring systems
- Regular compliance audits
- Defined Key Performance Indicators (KPIs)
- Enforcement measures for non-compliance, including disciplinary actions

11. Data Retention and Disposal

- Data shall be retained only for as long as necessary
- Secure disposal methods shall be used (e.g., data sanitization, physical destruction)
- Disposal activities shall be documented and audited

12. Rights of Data Subjects

In accordance with the NDPA 2023, individuals have the right to:

- Be informed about data usage
- Withdraw consent
- Access and correct their data
- Request deletion or restriction of processing
- Lodge complaints with the relevant regulatory authority

13. Data Breach

While the University shall adopt best practices to ensure the security of all data under its control, in the event of unforeseen data breach, such occurrence shall promptly be reported to the Data Protection Unit (DPU) led by a Data Protection Officer (DPO), specifying the nature of the risk and the number of subjects involved. Depending on the nature of the breach, the DPO after assessment shall take practical steps to prevent further breach and promptly report same to the Management.

Where the breach is likely to result in high risks to the concerned data subjects, the University shall within 72 hours, notify the Nigeria Data Protection Commission of this breach. The University shall promptly communicate same to the data subjects affected by this breach, including practical measures that can be taken to mitigate the adverse effects of the breach.

14. Compliance

All staff and Stakeholders of the University are encouraged to adopt the principles in this Policy and the Data Protection Act 2023, to avoid exposing the University to administrative sanctions and lawsuits. The University shall ensure full compliance by its staff, including necessary disciplinary actions for violations.

15. Declaration

All staff and stakeholders must acknowledge and comply with this policy.

DECLARATION PAGE

I hereby confirm that I have read, understood, and agree to comply with the University of Delta, Agbor (UNIDEL) Policy on Data Management and Privacy. I acknowledge that any misrepresentation, violation, or failure to adhere to the provisions of this policy may constitute misconduct and may result in appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with University regulations.
